

San José Divers top 10 places to eat in San Jose del Cabo area

One of the most famous things about Mexico is its culinary delights, Mexican food is known worldwide. Here are a few of our favourite spots for food, covering all price ranges and everything Mexico has to offer.

1. Las Guacamayas Sucursal - Chamizal

This is a personal favourite of all of ours. It is a Mexican restaurant, serving tacos, fajitas, volcanes, tostadas, sopes, gorditas and much more.

We love it here because the food is amazing, the margaritas are delicious, and the service is more than you can expect. The staff remember us each time we go in, it is a very genuine experience of a Mexican evening out.

2. BCS Micro Breweries

a. Baja Brewing Company, Downtown San Jose

Baja Brewing is a comfortable place to get a nice microbrew, burgers, wood fired pizza, salads, as well as a variety of Mexican cuisine. Located in downtown San Jose, dropping by here is a nice rest from perusing through the old town.

b. Sierra de la Laguna Brewery, Downtown San Jose

Tucked in the heart of San Jose's old town, this quaint brewery offers a variety of great microbrews.

3. Café el Puerto – La Playita

Grabbing a quick order to go (para llevar) is easy and delicious! Their menu is thorough, serving a range of Mexican classics, including el tipico breakfasts, delicious tortas, and evening BBQ. Our very own Tom has his own torta here.

4. El Ganzo Hotel – La Playita

This gem of a hotel is located just outside Puerto Los Cabos, in La Playita. At the mouth of the marina, El Ganzo Hotel sits brazenly towards the western sunset with an infinity pool overlooking the marina and the Sea of Cortez. Stunning views, delicious cocktails, and tasty tacos are a standard when visiting here.

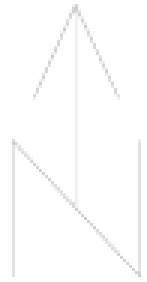

5. Pescadito Break – Los Cabos corridor

The perfect beach spot, Pescadito Break sits on the water's edge of San Jose. A great mix of live music, Latin food, and even whale watching amongst the palm trees and beach make this a destination stop.

6. District Bar – San Jose

A lively sports bar, located in west San Jose, along the corridor. Football matches and NFL games are frequently televised here. A fusion style restaurant, with many delicious appetizers and entrees along with craft beers from both local breweries and a stunning variety of cocktails!

7. La Lupita – Downtown San Jose

8. Miguels Hamburguesas y Burros – La Playa

Miguels is just a little street food cart, but he knows how to make it hit, he's a local La Playa legend. He serves burros, burgers & hotdogs, all with a big smile. Having some light refreshments and a bite to eat whilst watching the sunset over the marina and the mountains behind lighting up the sky is one of our favourite things to do in the evening.

9. Lateral tacos – Zona Hotelaria, San Jose

Lateral tacos, just across from a golf course has a huge variety in tacos and other Mexican delights. The menu is varied, the tacos great and the margaritas strong! It is perfect for a quick bite or a full meal with friends & family. It's very close to all the major hotels in the area and only a 10-minute walk from downtown.

10. Flora Farms – Las Ánimas Bajas

“From our fields to your table” - Not exactly hidden, but Flora Farms is an absolute gem. All the food is either grown on the farm right there or raised in the nearby 150-acre ranch, it is all organic and delicious.

Around the farm there are also little shops and cafes to explore and of course, a tour around the farm and the terrapins in the pond.

If you want any more information on any of our favourite spots, or anything else to do with being here in Los Cabos, please don't hesitate to contact us.
